ADVISORY COUNCIL NEW AT DCHS

Something new at D.C.H.S. this year is the Student Advisory Council (top). The council's purpose is to establish and maintain lines of communication between the students, administration, and board of education.

Office monitors (top left) aid Mrs. Reichert and Mrs. McPheeters in the high school office, keep daily attendance records and collect hourly absent slips.

Library assistants (lower left) help Mrs. Moore in the upkeep of the records and assist students in checking out books.

QUILL AND SCROLL ORGANIZED

Quill and Scroll, the international honorary society for high school journalists, has granted a charter to Dupo High School based on the merit of the school yearbook, El Tigre.

Quill and Scroll was organized to encourage and recognize individual achievement in student journalism. It has high educational and journalistic standards.

Mrs. Ida Mae Williamson is sponsor of the local chapter.

ORGANIZATIONS

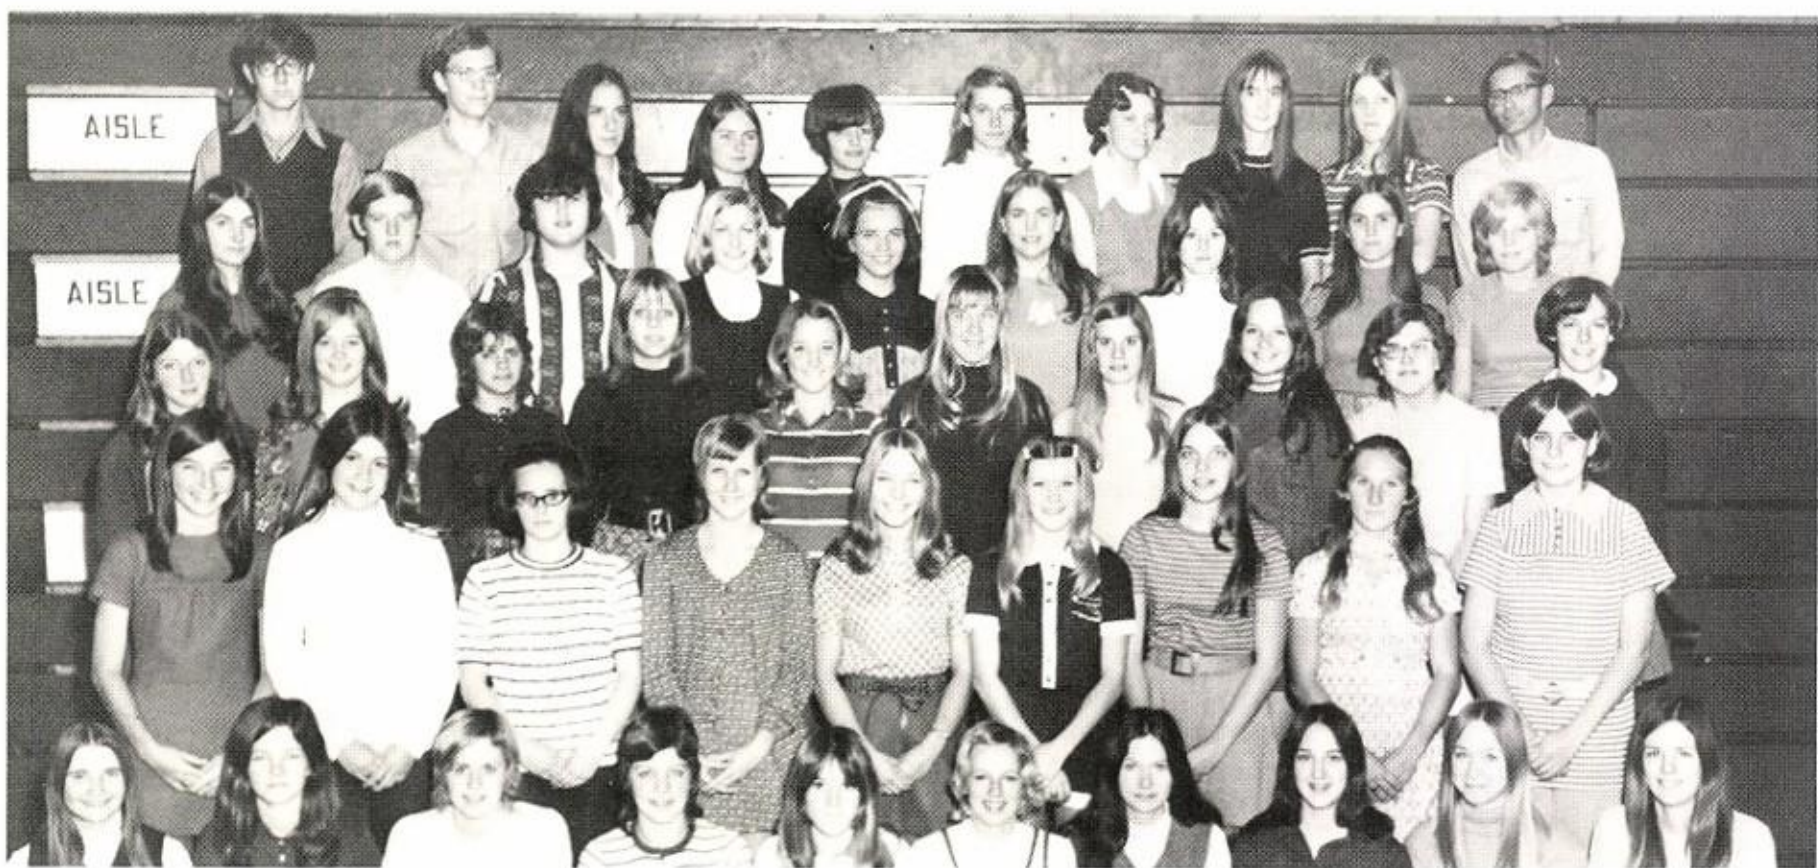

CAREER CLUBS PREPARE

Future Homemakers promote international good will and develop leadership in home and community. Our F.H.A. members were kept busy this year under the guidance of President, Beth Maves. F.H.A. projects included making and selling apple butter, taking cookies to an area nursing home, collecting canned goods for a children's home, and attending rallies. Officers are Beth Maves, Vicky Peyton, Donna Thielemann, Pam Riddle, Juanita Whitaker, Diane Kleinschmidt and Leora Barnett.

FTA gives members an opportunity to gain first hand experience from the other side of the desk. By making its members aware of the needs and opportunities in the educational system, FTA promotes an interest in the teaching profession. The club's officers are Toni York, Jacque Metz, Barbara Sitzes and Debbie Renken.

FNA stimulates an interest in medical careers. Members sponsor bake sales and tour hospitals.

At Christmas students stuffed stockings for the American Red Cross. Members also aided Mrs. Mentel, the school nurse, in giving tuberculosis skin tests. Officers are Deline Arras, Debbie Tilton, Peggy Thielemann and Juanita Whitaker.

DUPO HIGH SCHOOL BAND

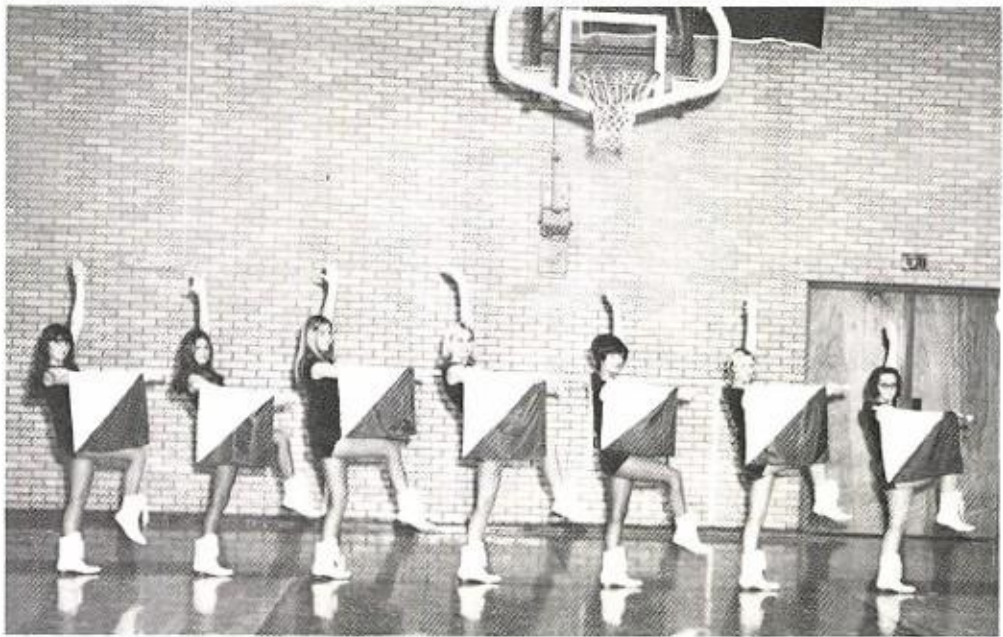

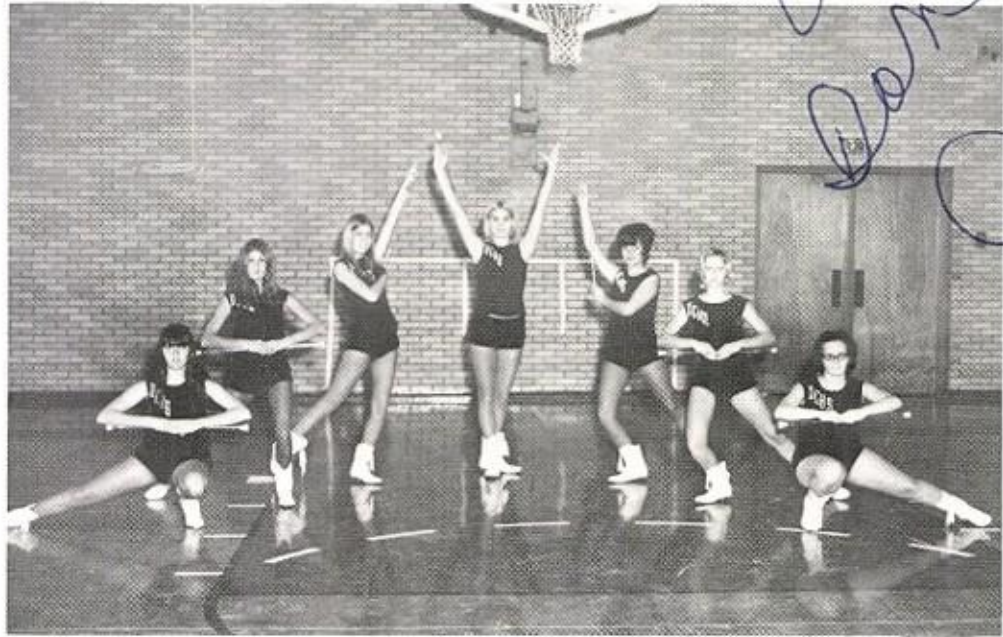

DCHS is proud of their band. Practices are held everyday during second period.

AND MAJORETTES

The majorettes add to the showmanship of the band. Besides the football half-time shows, the band gives concerts for the public and student body.

HONOR SOCIETY EMPHASIZES SERVICE

To create an enthusiasm for scholarship and to encourage the development of character in its members the National Honor Society sponsors activities which emphasize service to the school and to the community. This year the Honor Society donated money to the A.C. Daugherty Library, participated in glass drives, and established an honor plaque to recognize the former students who were rated first in scholarship, service and athletics. This year's officers are Joe McGarry, Barbara McPheeters, Elizabeth Crowell and Pam Harris.

MU ALPHA THETA ENCOURAGES RESEARCH IN MATHEMATICS

To promote and encourage an interest in higher mathematics members of Mu Alpha Theta present topics for discussions during the club's monthly meetings. Discussions include the use of matrices, vectors and other tools of mathematics. Students also participate in field trips, tutor other students in math and take part in math field meets. Mu Alpha Theta officers are: (bottom left) Helen Frederitzi, Jennifer Wiechert, Pam Harris, and John Morton. Kathy Frederick receives her Mu Alpha Theta certificate during the initiation ceremonies (top right). A student presents a program for discussion at a Mu Alpha Theta meeting (bottom right).

YEAR'S HIGHLIGHTS CAPTURED

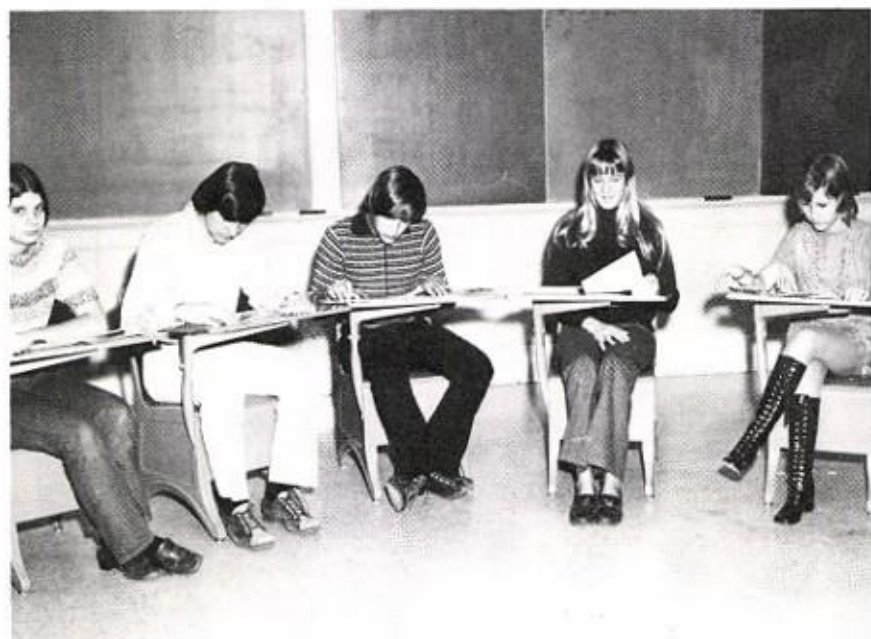

Hours of planning, picture-taking, cropping, copy-writing and checking are needed to capture the history of the school year involving each individual in a school. Business manager, Candy Collins, and Editor, Linda Hofstetter (upper left) are checking the dummy with the Annual Sponsor, Mrs. Williamson. Joe McGarry, Dana Ard, Barbara Singer, Scott Barker and Alan Phillips (top right) are identifying undergraduate pictures.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council guided the students through a successful homecoming consisting of: Spirit Day, the bonfire, the parade and the Saturday night dance. The Student Council consists of elected members from each class and the president and vice-president of each class. This year Student Council members presented a Christmas Assembly, sponsored assemblies and studied par-

DRAMA CLUB PRESENTS "A TOKEN OF OUR ESTEEM"

HIT
Bell

Drama Club presented a dramatical production "A Token of Our Esteem" on November 19 and 20. They assisted the Music Department in the Christmas Concert, gave a production for the Dupo Women's Club and decorated a float for the homecoming parade.

GAA FINDS COOPERATION AND TEAMWORK

The Girl's Athletic Association was organized to offer a variety of sports and activities in which high school girls could participate. This club provides the students with an opportunity to improve their athletic skills and develop teamwork and cooperation with others. GAA gives many a chance to experience responsibility in leadership roles while serving as officers or class representatives.

Vicki Sheets

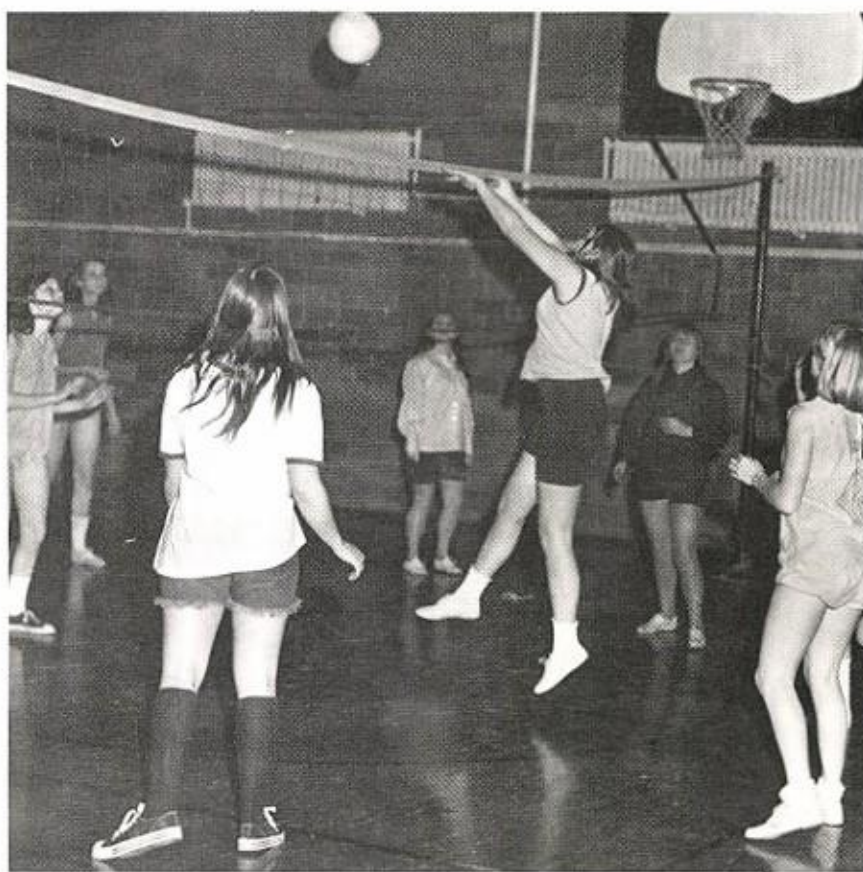

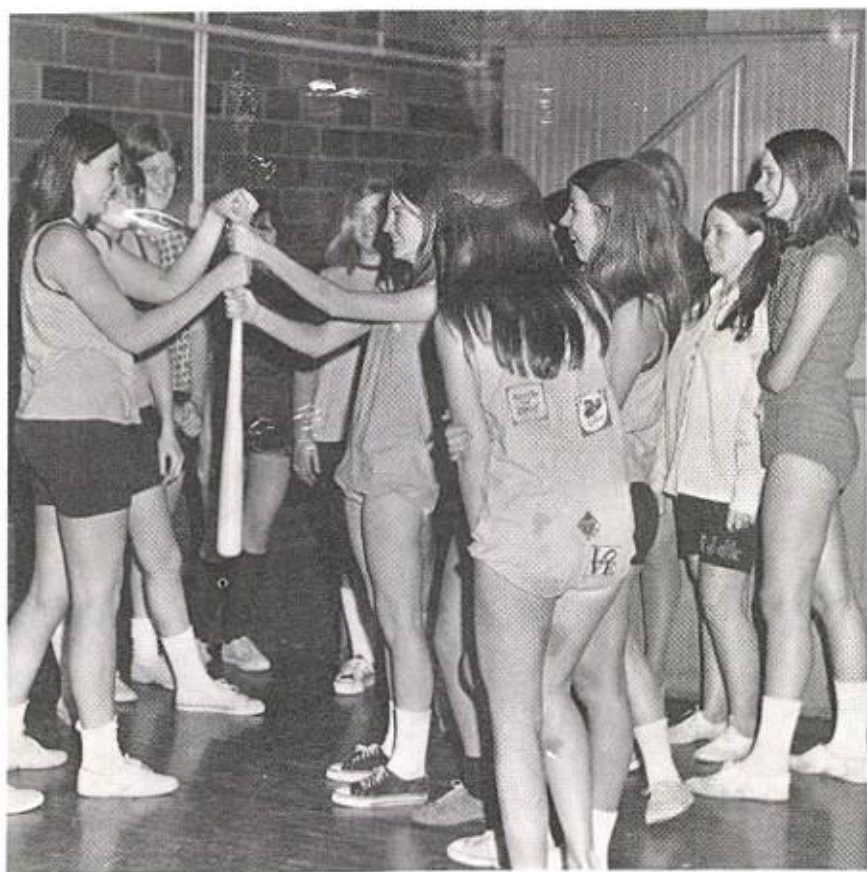

ESSENTIAL IN COMPETITIVE SPORTS

This year the sports in which G.A.A. members participated included softball, volleyball and basketball. In October twelve members went to Granite City to compete with seven other schools in speed-away, archery, badminton and power volleyball.

G.A.A. also sponsors co-recs in which the entire high school is invited to participate.

This year's officers are Sherry Weber, Candy Collins, Dana Ard, Barb Singer and Debbie Marlen.

STUDENTS MAKE GOOD USE OF AVAILABLE EQUIPMENT

To provide extra typing practice for those students who need it and have no typewriter available is the main purpose of the Typing Activity. The Club also makes it possible for students to do their make up work and personal assignments. Promoting student interest in the library and improving individual skills in using the library are the aims of the Library and Visual Aids Club. The club holds its meetings during activity periods on second Wednesdays and fourth Mondays.

By placing emphasis on group involvement the Art Club promotes appreciation of art and assists its members in expressing their ideas and feelings. Students participate in art shows and contests, decorate bulletin boards throughout the high school, and take trips to scholastic displays. Members also boost school spirit by selling Tiger buttons and spirit ribbons which they silkscreen. The club's officers are Danny Mowery, Sherry Acord, and Sue Hahn.

PEP CLUB

Pep Club encourages the various sport teams by promoting school spirit and support. Officers are Richard Brown, Linda Aldridge, Debbie Renken and Debbie George.

VARSITY CLUB

Varsity Club is made up of all the team members who have received Varsity letters. The Varsity Club works with the Pep Club to promote school spirit. This year's officers are Dean McKinney, Mike Harris, David Williamson and Steve Pruett.

IAC OPERATES NEW VIDEO TAPE SYSTEM

To introduce its members to activities of Industrial Arts, the I.A.C. has recently begun a business of binding notebooks. Other activities in which members take part are the selling of candy at lunch hour and the Annual Industrial Arts Club Banquet. This year the school acquired a closed circuit video tape system which the Industrial Arts Club officers operate. This year the officers are: Dan DeRousse, President; Allen Thompson, Vice-President; Timothy Ruiz, Secretary; and Allen Wooters, Treasurer.

JUNIOR COMMITTEE SELLS REFRESHMENTS

Junior Committee is organized to earn enough money through concession sales and other sponsored activities to pay for the Junior-Senior Prom, the 1973 El Tigre and a gift to the school.

Faith Ann Honey and Phylis Kimmel were this year's co-chairmen. Together they organized members into working units, were responsible for stock inventories, and were present at every activity to manage affairs.

PLANS AND ORGANIZES PROM

Junior Committee also planned and organized the Prom which was given in honor of the Seniors on May 13. The theme was "The Gay Nineties."

This year something new was added in the way of concessions. School board members aided the Junior Committee by selling concessions for them from a trailer placed on the home side of the football stadium.

D.C.H.S. CHORUS

In an era ranging from hard rock to classical, Miss Stockglausner, choral director, chose songs that appealed to the students and offered a wide range of vocal experience.

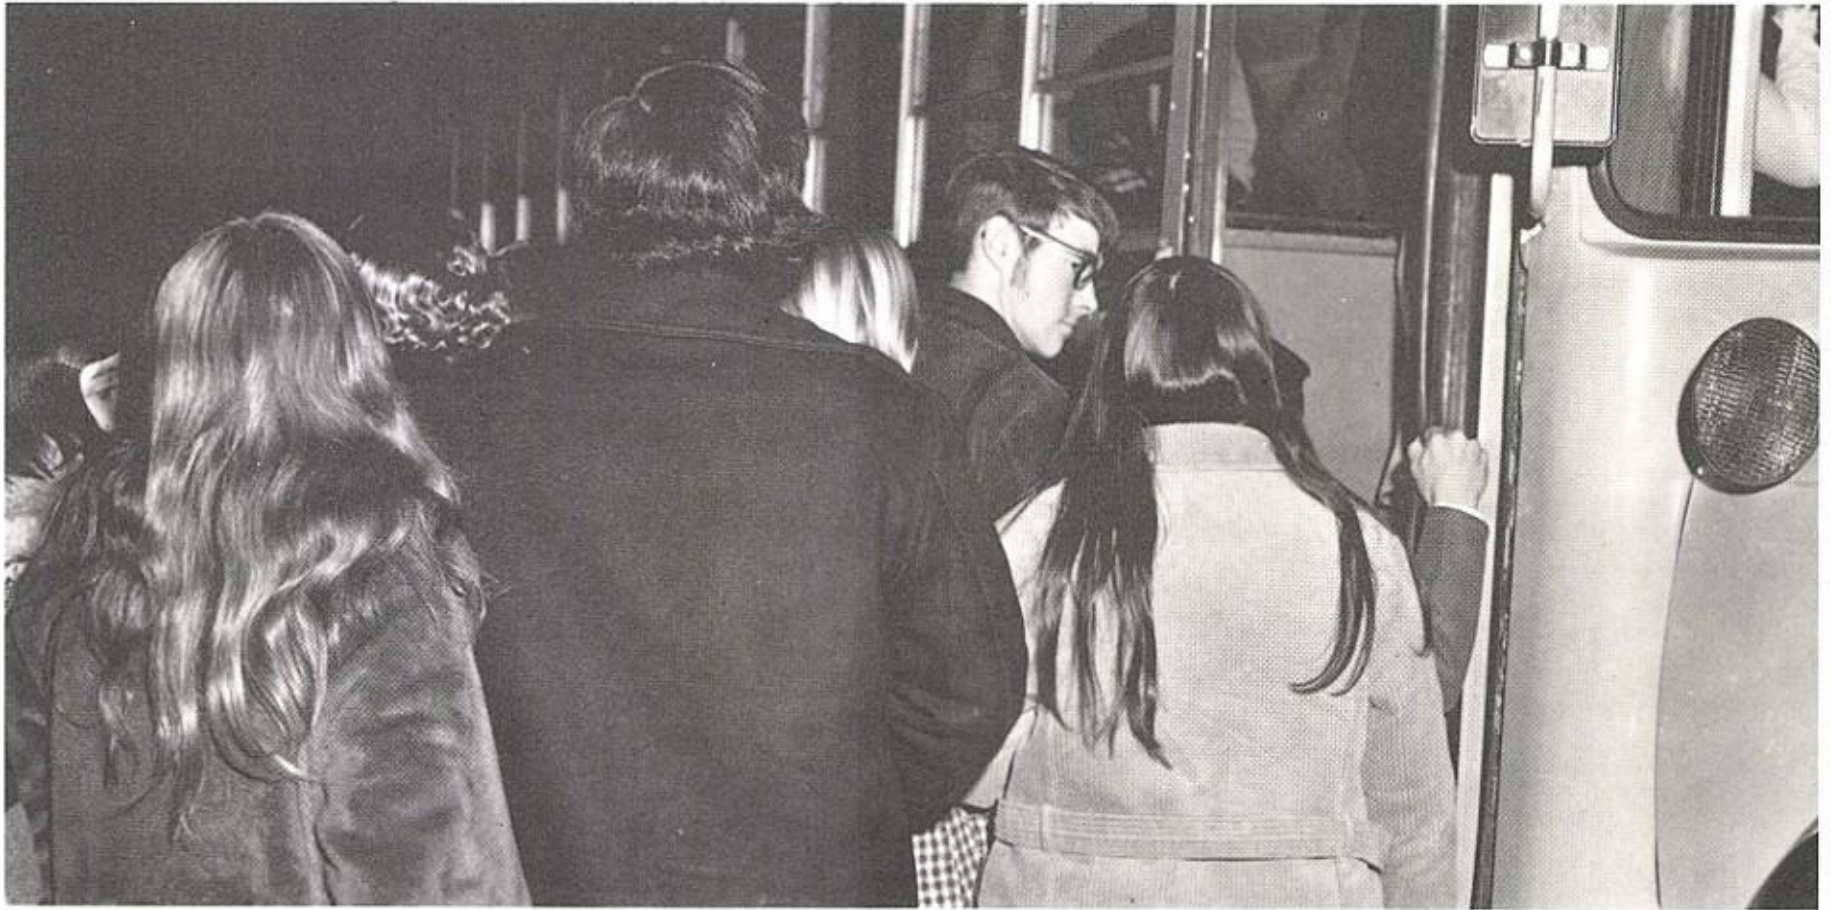

The chorus opened the year with a program for Open House. At Christmas, they went caroling at various institutions, sang in a Christmas assembly, and presented a Christmas Concert in conjunction with the band. During the winter, they worked on the musical "On With the Show" that was performed in March. They also attended the annual music festival which was held in Mascou-tah this year and presented a spring concert. To finish the year, the chorus performed at Baccalaureate.

BIOLOGY CLUB RUNS SOIL ANALYSES

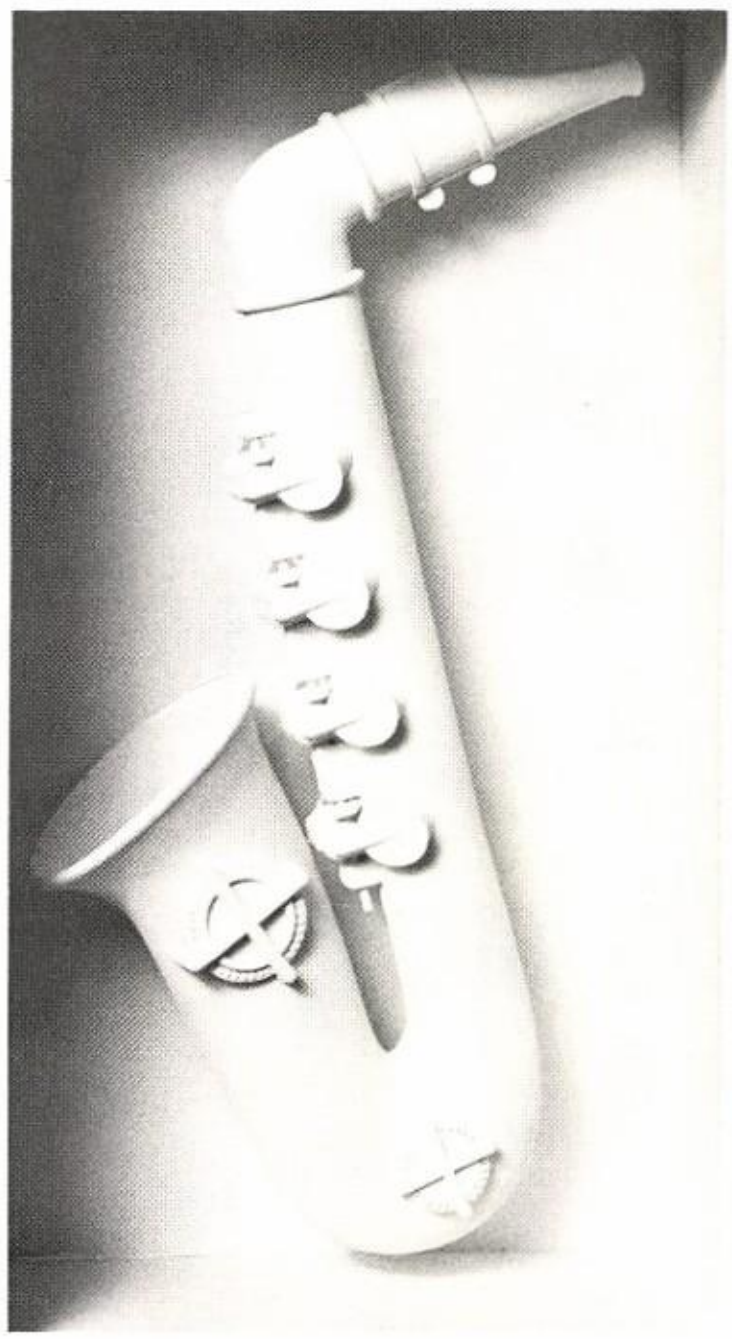

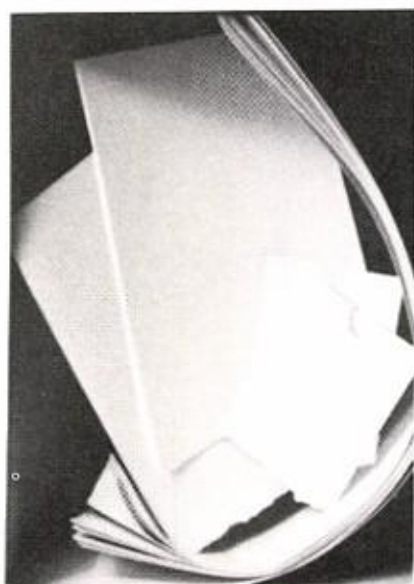

Biology Club furthers the interest of its members in science and acquaints them with their surroundings. This year the Biology Club ran soil analyses and plan to raise tropical fish in the Biology Aquarium.

Biology Club officers (bottom left) are Glyn Rammage, Mary Hayes, Skip Dudley, Donna Hunsaker and Marty Kohlenberger. Joe Frey, Glyn Rammage and Donna Hunsaker study the movements of the tropical fish.

CHORUS AND BAND PRESENT CONCERT

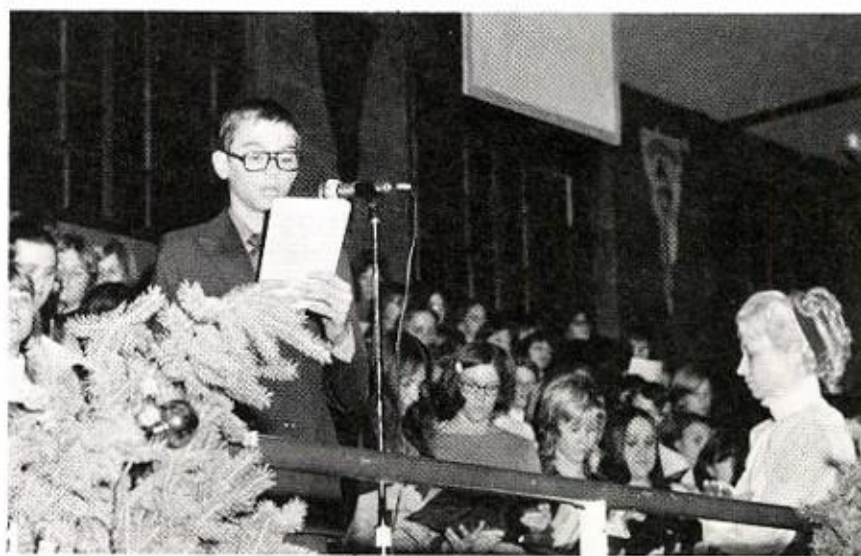

DCHS Chorus and Band presented a Christmas Concert on December 21. During the Concert the band and Chorus presented various numbers such as the traditional Christmas Carols and also some of the contemporary music of today.

Mr. Young (left) directs the band during the Christmas Concert.

WE TAKE PRIDE IN DEDICATING THE HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETIC FIELD
AS THE
A. C. DAUGHERTY FIELD

The Board of Education, on behalf of the people of School District 196, in recognition of the many years of educational leadership to the youth of the community, as a token of gratitude, name the High School Athletic Field THE A. C. DAUGHERTY FIELD.

Mr. Daugherty was truly a man for many seasons; active in his church, a strong supporter of community projects, a man with a deep interest in athletics and other extracurricular activities but most of all a wise counselor and strong education leader.

Mr. Daugherty served his community for over twenty-five years, and deeply deserved this recognition.

Mrs. Daughtery (below) accepts this token of appreciation.

DRAMA CLUB PRESENTS "A TOKEN OF OUR ESTEEM."

"A Token of Our Esteem," a three act comedy, was presented by the drama club on November 19 and 20.

The play centered around a group of young poor relation who tried to remove their rich, pompous Second Cousin (twice-removed) from the Chairmanship of the Board of Directors. All of the plotting and scheming of the younger generation was to no avail until Great Uncle Potiphar came to the rescue.

Uncle "Potty" is criticizing Lovie for throwing out the lunch basket when he wanted her to bring the plane out of a nose dive. Aunt Delilah and Uncle Hermann look on.

"Indians, Indians. We're being attacked. They're coming across the bay." The girls from Camp Wampum aren't recognized by Uncle Potiphar's fiancée. George tries to convince Uncle "Potty" that he is the man of the moment.

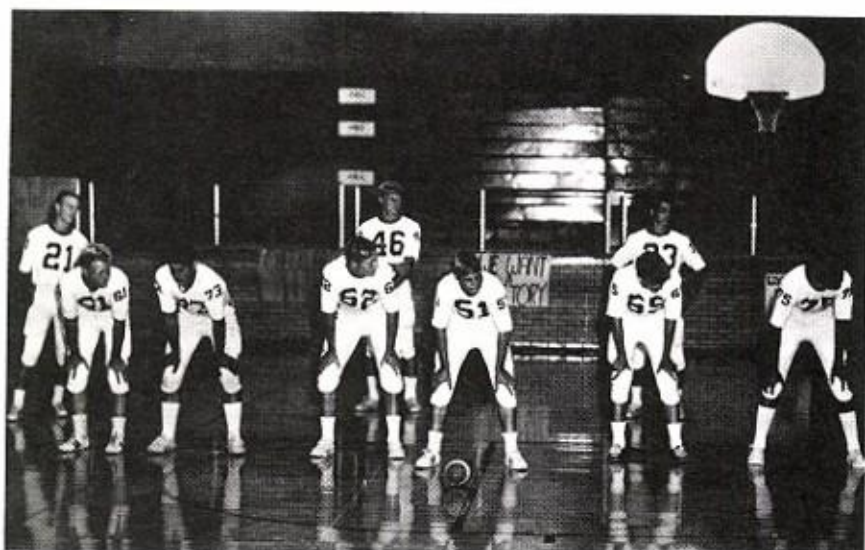

SCENES AROUND D.C.H.S.

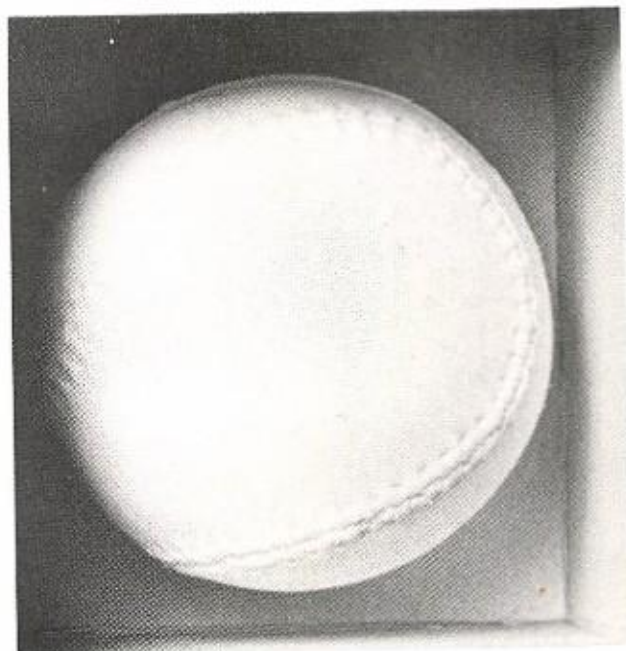

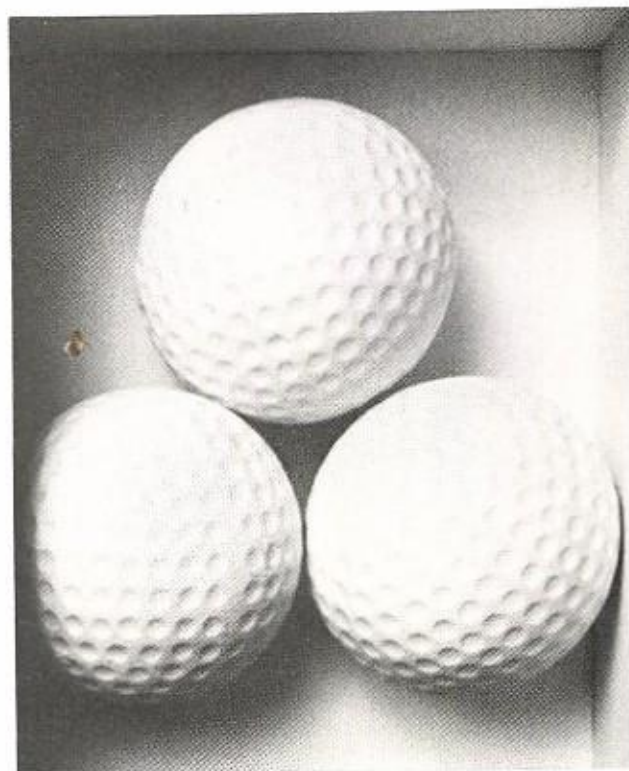

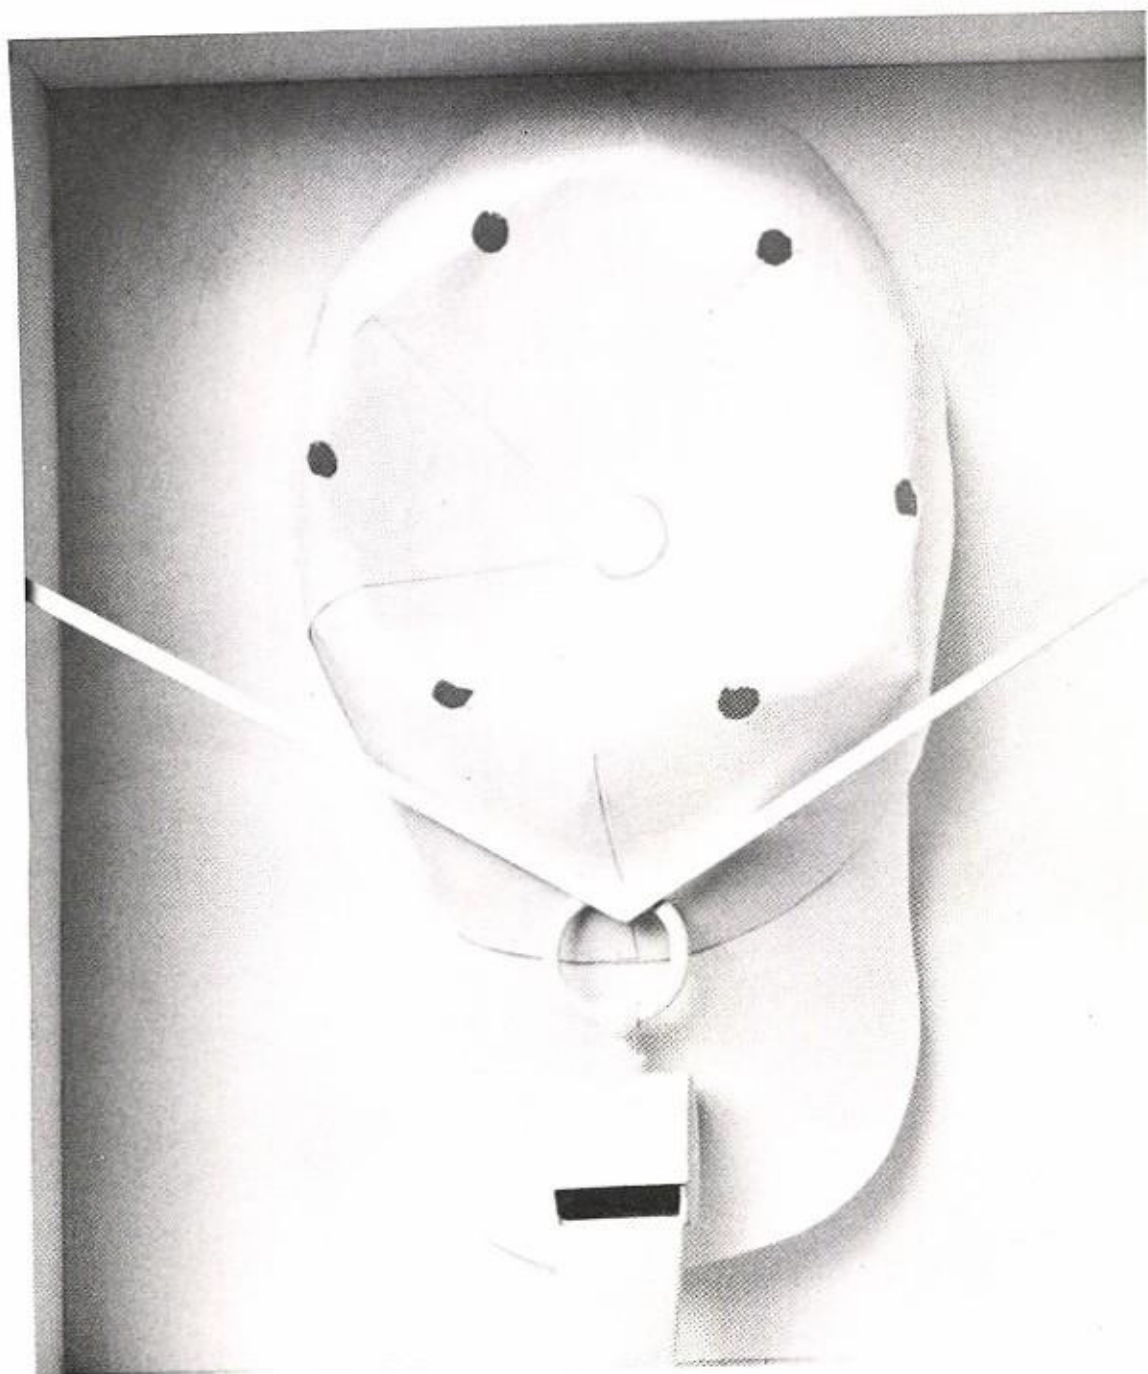

Students in Mrs. Ramey's homeroom (upper left) win first place in the door decoration contest. Students were delighted when winter finally came (upper right) and they got an unexpected vacation of two days. Students (lower left) are enjoying a break from study at the
